Gearing up

Traditionally a fall favorite, leopard-print shoes are invading spring collections. All styles, from peep-toe platforms to ballerina flats, look great with dresses, jeans and capri pants. Available for $29.99 a pair at Rack Room Shoes.

On the cover: Curling irons and flat irons are the hottest hair-styling tools — literally. They heat up quickly but seem to take forever to cool down. For women in a hurry, the new heatproof Hotty Hoody ($19.95) keeps hot styling gear under cover, making it instantly portable or packable and protecting against burns. Available in five colors at many retail stores or online at hottyhoody.com.

Designed with jazz fans in mind, a new jewelry collection from Agabhumi/The Best of Bali offers sterling-silver pendants, bracelets and rings ($38-$76) featuring saxophones, guitars and other instruments. Order at agabhumi.com.

Visible bra straps and gapping necklines surely spoil the effect of a fine outfit. One solution is Hollywood Fashion Tape. One box ($6.95) contains 36 3-inch strips of clear, hypoallergenic tape that leave no residue on skin or clothing. Easy to use, it's more discreet and fabric-friendly than safety pins. Available at Bella, Winter Park.

The Yoli-poli yoga bag ($250) fuses function with fashion. The stylish leather bags are lined with cotton canvas, detailed with grommets for ventilation and come in black or metallic pink. Available at many retail stores or online at yolipoli.com.
